SALONE DEL MOBILE.MILANO 2023

The 61st edition of the Salone del Mobile.Milano is being held at Fiera Milano Rho from the 18th to the 23rd of April!

The 61st edition of the Salone del Mobile.Milano is being held at Fiera Milano Rho from 18th to 23rd April, bringing its “good looking” and “well made” products back onto what is an internationally important stage. Overall, the 2023 events will bring together 1962 exhibitors, including more than 550 young talents under 35 and 27 design schools. The Salone will create different worlds – the Salone Internazionale del Mobile, the International Furnishing Accessories Exhibition, Workplace3.0, S.Project, Euroluce, and SaloneSatellite – to allow visitors the possibility of an exciting, subjective, memorable exploration,

EXPO REVESTIR 2023

Expo Revestir, the largest coverings and finishings fair in Latin America will be held from March 14 to 17, 2023!

Expo Revestir 2023 is promoted by the National Association of Manufacturers of Ceramic Tiles for Coatings, Sanitary Ware and Congeners (Anfacer), since 2001, and will inaugurate 2023 its "new home" in São Paulo Expo, with 62 thousand square meters, double the size of the previous registered. The largest coverings and finishings fair in Latin America will be held from March 14 to 17, 2023, bringing more experiences, content, design, trends, and inspiration to the sector and will feature more than 300 exhibitors that will present new releases in ceramics, sanitary ware, metal fittings for kitchens and bathrooms, ornamental stones, mosaics, wood, laminates, cement and vitreous. The fair is a unique opportunity for architecture professionals, interior designers, resellers, international buyers, and everyone who is part of the construction production chain to meet, update, and make business contacts with the largest national and international players in the sector.

GENESIS BY SYSTEM CERAMICS

System Ceramics new technology GENESIS has a three - dimensional vision of ceramic potential

A critical eye, vision and a deep understanding of the sector are needed to ensure that the future of ceramics goes beyond consolidated standards and searches for new synergies and opportunities. The evolution of technology is one of the fundamental elements of this process and System Ceramics, a Coesia Company, with consolidated and recognized experience throughout the world for more than 50 years, has driven its research towards making the ceramic product ever more flexible and useable, embracing extra-ordinary sectors such as furnishing and design.
