SHAPING GLASS

In the meticulous hands of Vandeepp Kalra, every piece of glass tells its own story...

Vandeepp Kalra is a self-taught artist who has spent over a decade experimenting with various art mediums, ultimately finding her true calling in mosaic art. Her work is characterised by a unique juxtaposition of texture, light and scale, composing stories that are as colourful as they are mysterious

Her dedication to the craft is evident in the elaborate detailing that defines her work. This attention to detail transforms her mosaics into narratives that unfold slowly, allowing viewers to discover new layers of meaning with each glance. Despite the inherent static nature of glass, Kalra manages to infuse her mosaics with a sense of movement and fluidity.

BEAUTY MEETS RESPONSIBILITY

Artist Shruti Vij talks to The Tiles of India about art and sustainability issues

Gurugram based artist Shruti Vij, is an alumna of the prestigious National Institute of Fashion Technology (NIFT), New Delhi, and is an art enthusiast, a painter with a distinct individual style. Shruti's art is not limited by style or technique. She likes to leave it free. She blended her artistic skills with her experiences in the fashion field, bringing about a perfect marriage of her two passions. It is about what touches her heart. During the past few years, Shruti has participated in many art shows, both nationally and internationally and has won great appreciation from art lovers and critics alike. She has an art studio by the name of Shruti Arts. We speak to her about art and sustainability issues.
