THE BLOOMING LOTUS

The GVK group has unveiled the first look of the Navi Mumbai airport inspired by Lotus flower, designed by globally acclaimed architect Zaha Hadid Architects.

The much-awaited ongoing Navi Mumbai International airport's first look was recently revealed. The GVK group, which is known for its work in the aviation sector has been leading Mumbai International Airport Limited (MIAL) and has been building the airport as a partner and has shared the first look of the Navi Mumbai airport recently. The terminal design of the upcoming airport takes its inspiration from the lotus flower, which symbolizes purity and elegance. The futuristic design of this airport blends modernity with Indian ethos, art, and culture in a poetic and fluid architectural language. The design has been done by globally acclaimed architectural firm Zaha Hadid, who also designed the Beijing Daxing International Airport.
