FOREVER IN STYLE

A colorful eclectic project 'The Palace' in Saudi Arabia designed by award-winning interior design firm UDesign and featuring Covet House's pieces.

If architecture and interior design are to be truly defined as an art form, this is it, the stunning new 'The Palace' project in Saudi Arabia designed by UDesign architecture and interiors would certainly suggest so. Their goal was to create a large-scale private residence that would have elements of a luxury hotel, an art gallery, and a family home. UDesign is an award-winning architectural and interior design company offering comprehensive services in architecture, interiors, 3D visualization, bespoke furniture design, and project management..

MEANINGFUL ARCHITECTURE

Remembering Architect icon Daniel Libeskind and his work on his 75th birthday.

“To provide meaningful architecture is not to parody history but to articulate it.” Daniel Libeskind

Daniel Libeskind is one of the most culturally multifaceted contemporary architects. A Polish-American architect, artist, professor, and set designer of Polish Jewish descent, Libeskind founded Studio Daniel Libeskind in 1989 with his wife, Nina, and is its principal design architect. His buildings include the Jewish Museum in Berlin, Germany, the extension to the Denver Art Museum in the United States, the Grand Canal Theatre in Dublin, the Imperial War Museum North in Greater Manchester, England, the Michael Lee-Chin Crystal at the Royal Ontario Museum in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, the Felix Nussbaum Haus in Osnabrück, Germany, the Danish Jewish Museum in Copenhagen, Denmark, and the Wohl Centre at the Bar-Ilan University in Ramat-Gan, Israel.
