INTIMATELY STYLISH

Val Di Sogno Hotel in Malcesine designed by architects Delpiano and Corrado Conti of ovre. design is characterised by its own distinct identity, which is the result of their creativity in creating authentic atmospheres that are enriched by details

The collaboration of the studio ovre.design with Val di Sogno Hotel in Malcesine, on the Veronese side of Lake Garda, began when the client commissioned the architect Giulia Delpiano and the designer Corrado Conti to develop some lake view rooms with an original concept. The idea was to make the guests feel at home, immersed in an ambience of residential atmosphere, with all the spaces and rituals related to a couple life.

ARCHITECT ICON

A photograph of Remment Lucas Koolhaas, a Dutch architect, sitting on a light-colored chair. He is wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt and has his arms crossed. He is looking directly at the camera with a serious expression. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

CURATING CONGESTION

Remment Lucas Koolhaas, the Dutch architect, is seen by some as one of the truly significant architectural thinkers and urbanists of his generation, by others as a self-important iconoclast. We explore...

Remment Lucas Koolhaas is a Dutch architect, architectural theorist, urbanist and Professor in Practice of Architecture and Urban Design at the Graduate School of Design at Harvard University. He is often cited as a representative of Deconstructivism and is the author of Delirious New York: A Retroactive Manifesto for Manhattan. Remment Koolhaas, usually abbreviated to Rem Koolhaas, was born on 17 November 1944 in Rotterdam, Netherlands, to Anton Koolhaas and Selinde Pietertje Roosenburg. He was a journalist in 1963 at age 19 for the Haagse Post before starting studies in architecture in 1968 at the Architectural Association School of Architecture in London, followed, in 1972, by further studies with Oswald Mathias Ungers at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York, followed by studies at the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies in New York City.

EVENTS

SALONE DEL MOBILE 2022

Designing, sustainability and beauty at 60th edition of the Salone del Mobile. Milano which is going to be held from 7 th to 12 th June, 2022 at Fiera Milano Rho

The 60th edition of the Salone del Mobile. Milano will be held at Fiera Milano Rho from 7th to 12th June, celebrating this important milestone through the key values embedded in the event: quality, innovation, beauty and, now more than ever, sustainability. After two really tough years due to the pandemic, to which they responded with supersalone, the Salone is looking ahead, mindful of its lengthy history. The aim is an ambitious one: to demonstrate that it is both possible and crucial to start holding great international events live again, embedding sustainability and environmental awareness into furniture production.
