ARCHITECTURAL GEMS OF INDIA

MYSTIC MUSIC

The Jatoli Shiv Temple has an air of mystery around it, its architecture made in such a way that when the rocks in the walls of this temple are touched with stones, the sound of damaruga emerges from them. We explore...

India has a magnificent history dedicated to various architectural marvels with incredible stories. One of the architectural gems is the Jatoli Shiv Temple. If a tourist wants to see a grand and spectacular temple perched on a hill top of Solan in Himachal Pradesh, then this monument is a must see. It is an architectural marvel and a famous sacred place which attracts a large number of pilgrims. It is considered as one of the oldest and highest temples in Asia. Jatoli gets its name from the long Jata (hair) that Lord Shiva has. The temple is located 8 Km from Solan, a city in Himachal Pradesh, India on Rajgarh road. The temple is considered as Asia's highest Shiv temple. Multiple fables and stories are associated with the history of Jatoli Shiv Temple. It is one of the oldest temples of Lord Shiv where an ancient linga has been placed.

PROJECT

FLORENTINE AMBIENCE

Andrea Auletta interiors studio has designed hotel “IL Tornabuoni”- Firenze embraced in the comfort of history in a flight of butterflies

Among the latest projects of interior designer Andrea Auletta, IL Tornabuoni in Florence is a five star hotel of the AG Hotels Group designed to host international guests. Andrea Auletta Interiors Studio took care of the design of the hotel in all its elements, from the distributive ones to the furnishing details. Each floor - says Auletta - has led to a different distribution layout and in this setting I have dealt with every element, designing each single furniture and furnishing complement as well as carpets, wallpapers, paintings and decorative items.
