CRAFTED POSTMODERN

Michele De Lucchi, an Italian designer, and architect creates small wooden houses with a chainsaw creating a unique essence of architectural style, we explore...

A designer, architect, and writer, Michele De Lucchi, is one of the great representatives of Italian design of the last few decades. He was born in 1951 in Ferrara and graduated in architecture from Florence. During the period of radical and experimental architecture, he was a prominent figure in movements such as Cavart, Studio Alchimia, and Memphis. De Lucchi has designed lamps and furniture for well-known Italian and European companies, such as Artemide, Olivetti, Alias, Unifor, Hermès and Alessi.
